

From: Robert Azzi [mailto:razzi@exeter.edu]
Sent: Sun 2/13/2011 8:44 PM
To: "MESA"
Subject: MES Guest RAMI KHOURI in LATIN STUDY: MESA

MES'ers

Just a little advance notice that on Tuesday dinner at 535pm we will have a special guest and his wife. NB Dinner will be in the LATIN STUDY

Rami Khouri is an old friend from Beirut, from the years when I used to live and work there. Although, as a New York Yankees fan, he is occasionally guilty of serious lapses of judgment, he is a long time journalist, writer and commentator on Middle East issues with important insights.

He is spending February at Tufts as a visiting scholar, He has agreed, with his wife Ellen, to come and have dinner and talk to us about all the changes that are going on in the Middle East.

<http://farescenter.tufts.edu/events/lectureSeries/2011Feb16Flyer.pdf>

See you Tuesday for some great food and conversation.

Robert Azzi